

COST-EFFECTIVENESS WORKING GROUP MEETING 6/20/22

Agenda

- 1. Introduce CEDMC's new Executive Director: Joe Desmond
- 2. CPUC's draft 2022 ACC Update now available

Meeting Notes

- 1. Introduce CEDMC's new ED: Joe Desmond
 - Joe provided a walk through of his experience and history with the energy industry over the last ~35 years. Joe brings a significant amount of expertise and experience in crafting, improving, and addressing EE and DR policies and programs.
 - Joe highlighted the particular interest and importance of cost-effectiveness in relation to current and ongoing issues (i.e. data access, CO₂ emissions reductions targets, energy savings, and additional ways to monetize and better value DR and DR providers).
 - Greg Wikler noted he will remain working with the Council during the transition.
- 2. CPUC's draft 2022 ACC Update now available
 - The draft 2022 ACC Update is now available for stakeholder review. Energy Division released this draft ACC for review and informal comment prior to the draft resolution adopting the 2022 update.
 - The draft 2022 ACC is immediately available through Willdan's website and CPUC's website.
 - There will be an online workshop to discuss this draft on June 30, 2022, from 9 a.m. to noon.
 - Informal comments and questions on this draft ACC should be sent to the entire service list and can be submitted at any time before the workshop. Please let the CPUC know if you'd like to ensure that a topic is discussed at the workshop by June 23, 2022, at the latest.
 - The workshop agenda and links will be sent to the service list a few days before June 30.

Next Meeting

Our next Working Group meeting will be on July 18, 2022 at 2-3pm. However, if there aren't any new CE developments, we will cancel the meeting a few hours before the meeting.
